

Newspaper-Record,
THE NEWSPAPER OF HONOLULU.

127 The Band will play at the Hotel to-morrow evening, and at Emma Square Saturday, at 3 p.m.
127 The long-ay legal decision inserted this week crowds out matter—both local and foreign—which was intended for to-day's issue.

PHINE HANNAH.—The Government Surveying Corps are at work daily in this lagoon, and have made an accurate survey of the entrance and shores for some distance inland. At one point in the harbor, near the salt works, they find a depth of one hundred feet of water. The truth is, there has never been an accurate survey of this lagoon, and few persons will be prepared to credit the extent of shore line, the size of the harbor, or the depth of the water in it, which the official survey will prove beyond a doubt.

THE WHEAT STAMPEDE.—Both the Alba and Chevrons have telegrams from Washington giving notice that the steamer of the Wheat Line are to be withdrawn, and that no mails will be forwarded thence from San Francisco to Australia. This is the Dakota, which is due here from Auckland on Saturday, may proceed on to San Francisco. The agents of the line have as yet received no instructions. It has been suggested that the China steamer, which left San Francisco yesterday, may touch here on the 8th, to leave the Honolulu mails and passengers, as well as instructions respecting the movements of the steamship boats.

ISLAND WHALING.—After a cruise of a month or so among the islands, the whaler Hawaiian Apia arrived in port last Sunday, with a catch of sixteen barrels of whale oil.

THREE WHALES KILLED.—Though we wished the owner and officers the success that rumors had given them, the three whales reported as having been killed by them, are at last disclosed to us.

Whales are reported as becoming scarce about Maui, and the season for humpbacking is very near its close.

SALTWATER ADOPTION.—On Saturday evening last a native, while riding a horse belonging to Mr. A. W. Judd, down the valley road, met and collided with the carriage of Col. Kalakaua, which was traveling up the road. The shaft of the carriage entered the horse's chest to a considerable depth, and the animal fell dead. Luckily, the horse always sustained injury.

It is surprising that accidents are not more frequent in our towns, where persons are continually riding and driving through the streets in the darkest nights without lanterns to guide, and without observing the speed customary in the day time.

The motion was carried.

THE POLICE WILL ASSUME THE TASK OF FORMING A NEW GOVERNMENT.

LONDON, March 14.—The Full Mall Senate was not prepared to form a Cabinet. The Gladstones will continue that neither the Conservatives nor the Liberals will be able to form a government. The Gladstones claim that the latter assumption is unwarranted. Lord Derby and Calvert cannot reach London until to-morrow; moreover, nothing can be determined, and all talk on the subject of a future Ministry must be put aside.

Royals, March 14.—Earl Dernell is still refusing to name the form of forming a new government. It was positively asserted this afternoon that one thing is settled, namely: if the Conservatives refuse to take office, Dernell will inform the Queen to send for the Gladstones to form a government, and will suggest that the responsibility be entrusted to Earl Derby, who has the support of the old Blue Whigs.

In the Return Club the belief is that the chances for the return of the Gladstones are small, and that Gladstone, in a few days, will withdraw his resignation, and that all parties are opposed to a dissolution of Parliament. At Cabinet councils held on Wednesday and Thursday, Gladstone reported as expressing a wish to form a coalition, and will suggest that the responsibility be entrusted to Earl Derby, who has the support of the old Blue Whigs.

LONDON, March 14.—The Education Bill was brought up in the House of Commons this afternoon, and a vote taken on the second reading, resulting in the defeat of the Government by 287 votes against 284. The result, it is claimed, was quite unexpected, and is a signal victory for the Opposition. It is expected that the Cabinet will resign. Earl Granville, it is thought, may attempt the formation of a new Ministry.

THE RETURN OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS AS THE RESULT OF THE GOVERNMENT.

LONDON, March 12.—The scene in the House of Commons last night was one of great interest, and was witnessed by a large number of spectators.

The Gladstones were defeated by 287 to 284, and the opposition made an attempt to disgrace their party at the defeat of the Irish Education Bill; in fact their flight was evident.

Among the distinguished persons present at the meeting were the Prince of Wales, Prince Christian, and the Duke of Cambridge.

After the vote had been taken, and it was clear that the Ministry had been defeated, Gladstone rose and said: "The vote just given is certainly of a grave character. As the House never wishes to consider a dissolution when the existence of the Government is in doubt, I move an adjournment until Thursday."

The motion was carried.

THE BILL AT THE BILL.

The Scotch and Welsh members were almost to a man in favor of the Education Bill, while the Catholics were equally unanimous in denouncing and opposing it.

Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Bright were the Managers of the bill, and Mr. Bright, in particular, had a number of prominent supporters in the debate.

Forty-seven Scotch and Welsh members, including fifteen Irishmen voted for it; 17 members, including Lord Bell, member for Linlithgow, were absent.

REFORMATION OF CLAVERBANK.

LONDON, March 12.—As was generally anticipated would be the case after the defeat of so important a bill, the Gladstones withdrew the Queen's Message to the House of Commons, and the Gladstones' speech was accordingly postponed.

The Scotch and Welsh members and the Managers of the bill, however, did not withdraw the bill, and the Scotch and Welsh members took part in the debate.

Forty-seven Scotch and Welsh members, including fifteen Irishmen voted for it; 17 members, including Lord Bell, member for Linlithgow, were absent.
